DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by (USPN 6,282,362 to Murphy et al).

In regards to claim 1 Murphy et al, herein Murphy, discloses an “image sensing means” (column 8, line 66 – column 9 , line 8); a “storage means for storing predetermined data” (column 15, lines 18-20, 30-36), wherein the “predetermined data” is the map data base; “display means” (element 340 of Fig. 2); “designation means” (column 14, lines 35-40; column 9, line 62 – column 10, line 12; column 16, lines 62-65), wherein a user designates a point on the pre-stored map by moving to that location and taking a picture; and “generation means” (column 9, line 62 – column 10, line 5; column 11, lines 49-58), namely generating position and time data associated with the image.

Note that Murphy discloses two different “designation means” for performing the same operation. In the recording mode the “designation means” is controlled by the location of the camera generated by the GPS system and displayed in the form of an icon as discussed above for designating a location on a map to link image data in the form of a hyperlink. In the playback mode the “designation means” is a cursor used to designate a hyperlink to bring up image data for that location on the map (column 10, lines 61-65). Examiner is defining both of these control systems as a whole as the claimed “designation means.”

Art Unit: 2615

In regards to claim 2 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 1. Murphy discloses the “addition means” (column 10, lines 45 – 65; column 11, line 59 – column 12, line 11) wherein the link information is added to the map by the use of an icon.

In regards to claim 3 Murphy discloses that the playback unit downloads the image data for viewing, or in other words “stores the image taken by said image sensing means” (column 10, lines 1-5).

In regards to claim 4, by the very nature of the designation means, as defined by the examiner above, if multiple images are taken at the same location then they are linked to the same point. Only when the user moves to a new location are the images linked with another point because the new location designates a new point on the map. Note that Murphy discloses the ability to take continuous and sequential images (column 12, line 49 – column 13, line 54).

In regards to claim 5 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 1.

In regards to claim 6 see examiners notes on the above rejections. Murphy discloses the ability to display the image data in lists or “hierarchy fashion according to said link information” (column 10, line 66 – column 11, line 6).

In regards to claim 7 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 1.

In regards to claim 8 see column 11, line 66 – column 12, line 11.

In regards to claim 9 see examiners notes on the rejection for the above claims.

In regards to claim 10 see examiners notes on the rejection for the above claims. Note that Murphy discloses the association of "identification information" such as time information and index information with the link information.

In regards to claim 11 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 1.

In regards to claim 12 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 2.

In regards to claim 13 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 4.

In regards to claim 14 see examiners notes on the rejection of claim 5.

In regards to claim 15 see examiners notes on the rejection of claims 7 and 11.

In regards to claim 16 see examiners notes on the rejection of claims 8 and 11.

In regards to claim 17 see examiners notes on the rejection of claims 9 and 11.

In regards to claim 18 see examiners notes on the rejection of claims 10 and 11.

In regards to claims 19-21 note that Murphy discloses the use of a microprocessor and stored program order to control the disclosed invention (column 15, lines 14-20).
